

The background of the image is a vibrant, painterly illustration of a medieval festival. It shows a narrow street between stone buildings, decorated with colorful bunting flags and strings of warm-toned lights. In the center, a large, semi-transparent menu card with a stone texture is displayed. The card lists a four-course meal in elegant cursive script. At the top of the card, the word 'MENU' is written in a small, red, blocky font with a lightning bolt graphic, followed by the word 'MEDIEVAL' in a large, bold, red, blocky font.
